This office action is responsive to communications filed 10/11/2005.

Claims 1 – 14 are pending.

1. Applicant's election of Species A (Fig. 2) in the reply filed on 10/11/2005 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).
2. Claims 10 – 14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 10/11/2005.
3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
4. Claims 1 and 4 – 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Forbes (US 5,744,695).

Forbes (see Figure) discloses a semiconductor manufacturing apparatus using a plurality of gases (54, 90, 110..) for processing, comprising: a chamber (42) into which plurality of gases flow, a mass flow meter (150), plurality of mass flow controllers (70, 98, 118) disposed parallel to each other, a plurality of valves controlling the flow of each of the plurality of gases, a control unit (48) controlling the flow of gases into the chamber and controlling the opening/closing of the plurality of valves such that any one of said plurality of gases flows into said mass flow meter when inspecting said mass flow controller. The inspection range and associated increment are inherent to the system disclosed by Forbes.

5. Claims 2, 3 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
